Certain other fees such as contribution fees or withdrawal fees (if any) aren't taken into account.

The latest performance information and more about how performance is calculated is available on advance.com.au. Investment returns are historical. # Investment information

The Advance PST offers two actively managed portfolios – the Australian Shares Portfolio and the International Sharemarket Portfolio. The Australian Shares Portfolio invests in the Advance Sharemarket Fund and the International Sharemarket Portfolio invests in the Advance International Shares Multi-Blend Fund. Advance is the responsible entity of both these Funds.

For further information about the Portfolios, see the 'Portfolios at a Glance' table on pages 3.

Do the Portfolios use hedging?

We're permitted to utilise currency hedging to help protect the market value of the investments of the relevant Portfolios against the volatility associated with foreign currency.

Generally, we don't expect to need to hedge either of the Portfolios, as they're invested in Advance investment funds. However, Advance may choose to use hedging in its investment funds. This may have a positive or negative effect on the value of your investment in the Advance PST.

Changes to the Portfolios/funds

We may establish a new Portfolio, or close an existing Portfolio, at any time. We may also review and change the investment strategy or objectives of a Portfolio and the Advance PST as a whole.

However, under the Agreement we have with Advance, subject to superannuation law, any changes to the investment strategy or objectives of a Portfolio or the Advance PST can only be made on the recommendation, and with the agreement, of Advance.

In the event of any material change or significant event in relation to the Portfolios and/or their investment strategy and objectives, we'll notify you within three months from when we make the change or the event occurs. If the change or the event is not considered adverse, we'll notify you of the change or event within 12 months. If the change is an increase in fees or charges, we'll give you 30 days' notice in advance of the change taking effect.

Understanding the risks of investing

No matter which Investment Option you choose to invest in, there will always be some level of investment risk. The variability of returns is known as investment risk. Generally, the higher level of risk you are prepared to accept, the higher the potential returns, or losses.

Risk can be managed and even minimised, but not eliminated and there's always a chance you may lose money on any investments you make. You should be aware of these risks when investing and understand that not all risks are foreseeable.

Some common types of investment risks are outlined in the following table.

RISK TYPE	DESCRIPTION OF RISK
Market risk	Markets are subject to a host of factors, including economic conditions, government regulations, market sentiment, local and international political events, and environmental and technological issues. Market risk may have different impacts on each investment and investment style in that market at different times.
Security specific risk	Investment in a company may be affected by unexpected changes in that company's operations (such as changes in management or loss of a big customer) and business environment.
International investments risk	Investing internationally is one of the major asset classes and will give exposure to different or potentially greater risks that are not associated with investing in Australia. International investments may be more affected by political and economic uncertainties, lower regulatory supervision, movements in foreign currency and interest rates, and more volatile, less liquid markets.
Currency risk	For investments in international assets, a rise in the Australian dollar relative to other currencies, may negatively impact investment values and returns.
Interest rate risk	Credit risk refers to a risk of loss arising from the failure of a borrower or other party to a contract to meet its obligations. This may arise in securities such as derivatives, fixed interest securities and mortgage securities.
Credit risk	This is the risk that an investment may not be easily converted into cash with little or no loss of capital and minimum delay because of either inadequate market depth or disruptions in the market place. Securities of small companies in particular may, from time-to-time, and especially in falling markets, become less liquid.
Liquidity risk	This is the risk that an investment may not be easily converted into cash with little or no loss of capital and minimum delay because of either inadequate market depth or disruptions in the market place. Securities of small companies in particular may, from time-to-time, and especially in falling markets, become less liquid.
Derivative risk	The value of derivatives is linked to the value of the underlying assets and can be highly volatile. Potential gains and losses from derivative transactions can be substantial.

Other important information

Do the Portfolios use derivatives?

We're permitted to invest in options, futures and other derivative contracts in addition to hedging.

Generally, we don't expect to use derivatives to help protect the Portfolios against possible changes in the market value of investments, as they're invested into Advance investment funds. However, Advance may choose to use derivatives in its investment funds. Losses, as well as gains, are possible on derivatives contracts. Advance doesn't use derivatives to leverage (gear) the Portfolios.

Professional indemnity insurance

As trustee of the Advance PST, BTFM is responsible for the day-to-day administration and ensuring it complies with all relevant laws and the provisions of the trust deed. To cover any potential liabilities, BTFM has taken out professional indemnity insurance.
